Begin your 8-day trip starting from Marrakech with a full cultural introduction, including a guided medina tour, artisan visits, and a relaxing traditional hammam experience. Enjoy a cooking class with a local family, where you'll learn the secrets of Moroccan cuisine. On the rest of the day, you will travel south across the imperial cities, visiting Rabat and scenic valleys along the way. In the Fes, enjoy a sunset, followed by a luxury or authentic camp experience. The following day, explore the guided tour of the medina. Continue to Rabat for a deep cultural experience, then head north to Chefchaouen, the famous blue city nestled in the Rif Mountains. Here, enjoy free time for photography, relaxation, and slow travel.
